

The Nancy R. Chandler Lecture Series presents
Engaging conversations, ideas and lifelong discovery

OUR PLATE IS POLITICAL:

USING THE SAVORY TASTES OF THE TABLE AS A TOOL FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

BRYANT TERRY

Chef, Author, Artist, Publisher

Tuesday, May 16, 4:30-6 p.m.
COCC Cascade Culinary Institute,
CUL 118 demo kitchen, 2555 NW Campus Village Way

In this lively cooking demonstration, Bryant Terry will show us how easy it is to make delicious, vegetable-forward meals that not only satisfy us but also serve as a catalyst for growing the food justice movement.

TICKETS:

$50 per person

Includes cooking demo, recipes, samples of Terry's vegetarian meal, and a craft beverage. Space is limited.

Register at
cocc.edu/foundation/cls

CENTRAL OREGON
community college
FOUNDATION
Nancy R. Chandler Lecture Series

Sponsored by: ASCOCC, Cascade Culinary Institute, Maybelle Clark Macdonald Fund, Deschutes County, Deschutes Cultural Coalition

♿ In advance of College events, persons needing accommodation or transportation because of a physical or mobility disability should contact Caitlyn Gardner at 541-383-7237. For accommodation because of other disability such as hearing impairment, contact Disability Services at 541-383-7583.